(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, and to those regulations that may be made thereunder, the Review Board shall regulate its own proceedings:

Provided that when there is a need to hear the minor the Board shall convene in the places established according to article 15 or in that place that is considered as offering a secure and adequate environment for the minor.

(4) Without prejudice to any other law, so as to execute its functions according to this Act, the Review Board shall have the power to access any documentation relevant to a case and to request the assistance of any person, and it may do so whenever the Review Board deems it helpful in the exercise of its functions.

(5) The Minister shall designate a person to act as Secretary to the Review Board and such person shall, as part of his duties, be responsible for the keeping of the relevant records and shall carry out such other work related to the functions of the Review Board as may be instructed by the Chairperson:

Provided that the Secretary to the board shall have no vote.

33. (1) The first revision of the care plan shall be made by the Review Board not later than four months from the date of the protection order for the minor, and subsequent revisions shall be made at least once every six months thereafter: Revisions.

Provided that the key social worker or the tutor and, or curator of the minor, as applicable, may file an urgent request with the Review Board so that the case is reviewed before the end of the six month term due to the minor suffering significant harm, or being in danger of suffering significant harm, should he be placed under care or as a result of the care plan:

Provided further that, in every case, the Review Board shall appoint the case for hearing not later than five working days from the filing of the request and it shall, after having heard the parties involved, give its decision on such an urgent request.

(2) The key social worker shall file a concurrent plan for the minor with the Review Board during the first revision. Said plan shall describe the requirements which the parents must meet so as to re-integrate or re-unite the minor with said parents, and also establish an alternative permanency plan:

Provided that the key social worker shall make every reasonable effort so that the minor be re-integrated or re-united with his parents and he shall always do so in accordance with the best interests of the minor.

(3) On the day appointed for each revision of the case, the Review Board shall hear the parents of the minor, the key social worker, the alternative carer and, if applicable, the tutor and, or curator, so as to determine if progress is being made in accordance with the care plan:

Provided that the Review Board may hear the minor whenever it deems it in the best interests of the minor to do so, or whenever the minor expresses his wish to be heard by the Review Board to the key social worker or to any other person having contact with the minor, and for such a purpose the board may also decide on a day and time which is different from the day and time appointed for the revision.

(4) For the purpose of fulfilling its functions, the Review Board may also consult with those professionals or other persons which it deems appropriate and for such a purpose it may also invite those professionals, or other persons, to attend the meetings of the Review Board as may be indicated to them.

(5) The decision of the Review Board may be that there was sufficient progress justifying the revocation of a protection order or that there has not been such progress:

Provided that in case that there be such progress, the Review Board shall make a recommendation to the Court so that the latter may, after having heard the interested parties, order said revocation or not.

(6) When the Review Board determines that there has not been sufficient progress to justify the revocation of a protection order, and two years have passed since the date on which the key social worker had filed the concurrent plan with the Review Board, the Review Board shall determine whether there are reasonable prospects for the re-integration or re-unification of the minor with his parents or not.

(7) If the Review Board determines that there are reasonable prospects as required by sub-article (6), it shall continue with its periodical reviews and this without prejudice to those variations to the care plan as it would deem necessary in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that if the Review Board determines that the prospects are not reasonable as required by sub-article (6), it may recommend to the Court that the alternative permanency plan is to come into effect:

Provided further that the Review Board may recommend the coming into effect of the alternative permanency plan at any time in which the minor is under a protection order, if this is deemed to be in the best interests of the minor:

Provided further that, if it is in the best interests of the minor that the alternative permanency plan is to come into effect immediately following the issuing of the orders mentioned in the immediately foregoing proviso, then such a recommendation should be made by the Director (Child Protection).

(8) Prior to pronouncing its final judgement the Court shall hear the views of every person it deems relevant, and in particular the views of the minor if he is deemed to have sufficient understanding.

(9) The key social worker, the parents of the minor, or if applicable the tutor and, or curator, may, within five working days, request the Court to review the decision of the board if the board had determined that there was not enough progress to recommend to the Court the revocation of an order:

Provided that, without prejudice to other measures as provided by other provisions of this law or of any other law, when it seems clear that a request for such a revision is frivolous or vexatious the Court may condemn the applicant to pay the expenses and a penalty of not less than two hundred and fifty euro (€250) and not more than two thousand and five hundred euro (€2,500):

Provided further that when the Court confirms that there are not enough reasons to revoke a protection order for a minor, any subsequent request for the revision of the decision of the Review Board shall be allowed only after twelve months following the decision:

Provided further that no request, or further requests, shall be acceded to by the Court following the issuing of a decree that an alternative permanency plan is in the best interests of the minor, save for when the Court deems the circumstances to be exceptional.

(10) All recommendations according to this article are to be made by a note to the Court.

34. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of article 22, when the key social worker, the parents of the minor, the alternative carer or, if applicable, the tutor and, or curator, request a variation to the care plan, the Review Board shall decide on the need or otherwise of doing so.

Variations to the care plan.

(2) The Review Board shall decide on the manner in which a care plan is to be varied after hearing all the persons involved, and it shall order the key social worker to make those variations to the care plan as established by the board.

(3) When the Review Board decides that a variation to the care plan is necessary it shall give its reasons in a report which is to make part of that decision.

35. (1) For the purposes of article 22(4), the Review Board shall, in agreement with the key social worker, the parents of the minor, the alternative carer and, if applicable, the tutor and, or curator, provide in writing the aims of the re-integration and the method in which the minor shall be re-integrated with his family.

Re-integration.

(2) When the Review Board determines that the aims of the re-integration plan have been met it shall file a note to that effect in the acts of the case and send those acts to the Court so that the latter shall give its decision on the recommendations of the Review Board.

(3) The Court shall revoke the protection order if upon receiving the acts referred to in the preceding sub-article it is satisfied that the aims have been met, without prejudice to those conditions which it may deem fit to impose:

Provided that the Court may, before giving effect to such revocation, hear any person which it may deem appropriate in the circumstances of the case:

Provided further that the Court shall in all cases hear the minor if deemed to have sufficient understanding.

(4) In its decision, the Court may order the re-integration of the minor with his parents while keeping in force the protection order for that period which it deems appropriate.
