CREATIVE COMPETITION

20 years of a
Commissioner for Children in Malta

Entry Guidelines

The Office of the Commissioner for Children has been working for 20 years in Malta to make sure that children have their rights. What are rights? Promises made so that children can have a good life.

This year the Commissioner for Children would like to celebrate the last 20 years by encouraging children to participate in a creative competition. The Commissioner would like to understand what makes children happy and how adults can make children's lives better.

This is your chance to have your say!
